THE BUSHFIRE RECOVERY PROJECT (BRP)

The BRP will involve transporting and establishing temporary digitisation and conservation assessment studios in bushfire affected regions of Victoria. There will be an opportunity for collection and personal items to be digitised by local digitising officers, offering employment to the local community. The studios will assist in community rebuilding, skills development, local capacity building, memorialisation, and remembrance.

Local community organisations and residents within the regions will be invited to bring their precious material to be digitised and preserved. The aim of this project is to help future proof collections by reminding organisations and individuals of the importance of digitising and documenting items important to them.

This project is part of the Victorian State Government Regional Business and Economy Recovery Plan and funded under the Local Economic Recovery (LER) Regional Economic Program. The BRP is managed by Australian Museums and Galleries Association (AMaGA) Victoria and supported by Creative Victoria.
