

JUSTIN CROFT

Manager | Accreditation Programs

Justin has extensive experience in the GLAM sector, and he has worked and volunteered at various collecting institutions across Victoria. Justin holds a Bachelor of Arts majoring in History from La Trobe University and gained a Master of Cultural Heritage and Museum Studies from Deakin University. In 2020, Justin was selected as the recipient of the Roslyn Lawry Award for demonstrating academic excellence and his personal and professional commitment to cultural heritage and museums.

Justin first joined the AMaGA Victoria team in February 2021 and is now Manager for the Accreditation Programs (parental leave cover). Previously, he had roles at AMaGA Victoria as the Office Coordinator, Victorian Collections Operations Coordinator, CHART Grants Coordinator and as an Officer for the Regional Museums Services Project.

When not wandering around museums and galleries, Justin can often be found watching sports, enjoying good coffee, and travelling.
