

KARINA LAMB

Vice President

Karina holds over 25 years' with the museum and gallery sector and currently serves as Director, Community and Corporate with Hepburn Shire Council.

Previous positions include, Manager Arts & Libraries at City of Monash, Manager Libraries, Arts & Culture at Mornington Peninsula Shire, Gallery Director at Arts Space Wodonga, General Manager for Centre for Contemporary Photography, Exhibitions Officer at Ian Potter Museum of Art, Senior Curator at Latrobe Gallery, Travelling Exhibitions Coordinator at Koorie Heritage Trust, and Curator/Museum Development Officer at City of Melville and the City of Mandurah in WA; where she was awarded a Museums Australia (WA Branch) Award for improvements to the museum sector.

In addition, Karina has completed a PhD thesis that explores Indigenous languages and collections management practices in Australian and New Zealand museums for the Interdisciplinary Cross-Cultural Research program at Australian National University.

