

MARIA DUNNE

Manager | Communications

Maria Dunne is a Communications Professional who joined AMaGA in 2024. Maria has a strong interest in community development and working in cultural spaces.

Prior to joining AMaGA, Maria worked at theatres and for festivals around Melbourne. She studied a Master of Cultural and Creative Industries at Monash University. Her thesis on the Drag and Burlesque Scene in Melbourne has been archived by the Australian Queer Archive (AQuA).

In her spare time, she produces theater shows, creates vibrant sketches, does dance classes, and hangs out with her backyard chickens.

She currently also works for the Melbourne Centre for Cities where she enjoys the ability to do communications in a different sector.

Contact Details

Availability: Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday

Email: mdunne@amagavic.org.au

