

MICHELLE FRACARO

Manager | Events and Professional Development

With 20+ years in the Galleries, Libraries, Archives and Museums (GLAM) sector, Michelle is an experienced educator, programmer, writer and strategic thinker. She currently lives on Wiradjuri Country, where she grew up.

In addition to her role with AMaGA Victoria, Michelle also works as General Manager for the AMaGA national office and as a freelance arts administrator, project manager and creative director, which she facilitates under her own creative business, The Liminal Collective.

Michelle has worked in large, national organisations including the National Gallery of Australia, the Australian War Memorial, and The National Portrait Gallery. She has also worked for state and regional institutions, non for profit organisations, and commercial art galleries.

Seeing herself as an enabler for the creative industries, and the people who work for and in them, Michelle brings together people, ideas, resources, creative content, and collections. With this, she is able to create relationships and facilitate engaging learning opportunities, as well as provide access to information and knowledge for diverse audiences.
